Graduate UCLA students on “Filing Fee”

Students on “filing fee” status are not registered with the University but are completing their work under the auspices of the University. To be eligible to purchase UC SHIP coverage, you must have been covered by the plan in the term immediately preceding the term you wish to purchase, or, if you waived enrollment in the prior coverage period, show proof of loss of the plan used to waive. Proof of loss means an official copy of the letter of terminated coverage from your insurance carrier, or company. In either case, you are then allowed to purchase the Non-Registered Voluntary UC SHIP for a maximum of one semester, or quarter.

Graduate UCLA students on planned educational leave, or “leave of absence”

To be eligible to purchase UC SHIP coverage, you must have been covered by the plan in the term immediately preceding the term you wish to purchase, or, if you waived enrollment in the prior coverage period, show proof of loss of the plan used to waive. Proof of loss means an official copy of the letter of terminated coverage from your insurance carrier, or company. In either case, you are then allowed to purchase the Non-Registered Voluntary UC SHIP for a maximum of one semester, or two quarters.

All former matriculated undergraduate and graduate UCLA students

To be eligible to purchase UC SHIP coverage, you must have been covered by the plan in the term immediately preceding the term you wish to purchase, or, if you waived enrollment in the prior coverage period, show proof of loss of the plan used to waive. Proof of loss means an official copy of the letter of terminated coverage from your insurance carrier, or company. In either case, you are then allowed to purchase the Non-Registered Voluntary UC SHIP for a maximum of one semester, or quarter.

Concurrent Status

Undergraduate students who only have one more class to complete their degree, are in the process of completing it through the UCLA Extension Concurrent Enrollment Program and are not matriculating as a full-time UCLA student are eligible to purchase and enroll as a voluntary concurrent status enrollment for a maximum of 1 term.

How to purchase the extended coverage: Students must contact Wells Fargo Insurance Services for UC SHIP at (800) 853-5899. Enrollment paperwork and payment are submitted directly to WFIS on behalf of Anthem Blue Cross. The Ashe Center does not collect any premiums or enrollment applications.

How the benefits are in effect: Students who voluntarily purchase the Non-Registered UC SHIP coverage will be subject to the same benefits as registered UC SHIP students and must follow the same policy and referral protocol. As a reminder, The Ashe Center is your first stop for all non-emergency medical care. If deemed necessary, your Ashe clinician will write you a referral. A referral authorization is required prior to making outside appointments. Behavioral health services must be maintained through the UCLA Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) and UCLA Behavioral Health Services (BHS) with a CAPS referral.

The Ashe Center website at www.studenthealth.ucla.edu provides a link to the Non-Registered Voluntary UC SHIP Plan including the enrollment dates, applications and premium fees. Non-Registered students and dependents are not automatically enrolled, but they may be able to obtain coverage through WFIS. Separate fees apply.
